Two weeks until Mother's Day! All moms and grandmas will be honored. Each will receive a small gift. Pastor will bring a special message. Bring ladies!

Have you done anything special for your secret sister lately?

"Save the Parking Lot" Day

Sunday, May 21

The parking lot around the church has degenerated to the point where it needs immediate attention. A 1½" layer of new blacktop along Hemlock Road and the area we own behind the church could save it. Maybe we could make it last another 17 years! The cost would be approximately $5,800.

Please pray about this matter, and consider giving a one-time gift on or before Sunday, May 21. If 58 people gave $100, we would reach our goal. But any gifts - more or less - would be appreciated. If we went over, we could blacktop between the church and factory, too!

Bus Drivers Training

Barbara Caffery will be training drivers for their CDL license during the second week of May. If you are interested in learning how to drive a bus, please see her or Frank Broughton. You will need to study a course book and get your permit before the training.

Him, Him, Him

There once was an old Christian woman whose age began to work on her mind. She had once known much of the Bible by heart. Eventually only one precious bit stayed with her. "I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day."

By and by part of that slipped its hold, and she would quietly repeat, "That which I have committed unto him." At last, as she hovered on the borderline between this world and eternity, her loved ones noticed her lips moving. Thinking she needed something, they bent down and listened close. They heard her simply repeating this one word over and over again: "Him, Him, Him."

She had lost the whole Bible, but one word. But she had the whole Bible in that one word.

The King's Business

Once there was a poor woman who greatly desired a bunch of grapes from the King's garden for her sick child. She took some money and went to see the King's gardener. But when she was tried to buy them, the gardener rudely pushed her away. A second attempt, with more money, produced the same results.

It happened that the King's daughter heard the woman's pleas, and inquired into the matter. When the poor woman finished her story, the princess said, "My dear woman - you are mistaken! My father is not a merchant, but a king. His business is not to sell, but to give:" Having said that, she plucked a bunch from the vine, and gently dropped it into the woman's apron.

"...how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" (Matthew 7:11).
