A Diamond in the Rough

A diamond in the rough
Is a diamond sure enough;
Before it's ever polished
It is made of diamond stuff.

But then someone must find it
Or it never will be found,
And, too, someone must grind it
Or it never will be ground.

But when it's found and when it's ground
And when it's burnished bright,
That diamond is everlastingly
A-flashing out its light.

Oh, teacher of Sunday school,
Don't say you've done enough.
That worst kid in your class
May be a diamond in the rough.

Perhaps you think he's grinding you.
And possibly you're right:
But it may be you need grinding
To burnish you up bright.
