2008 Theme: Order

January's Verse:

"For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

Colossians 2:5

OR'DER, v. t. To regulate; to methodize; to systemize; to adjust; to subject to system in management and execution; as, to order domestic affairs with prudence.

2. To lead; to conduct; to subject to rules or laws. "To him that ordereth his conversation aright, will I show the salvation of God." Ps 50:23.

3. To direct; to command. The general ordered his troops to advance.

4. To manage; to treat. "How shall we order the child?" Judges 13:12

5. To ordain. [not used.]

6. To direct; to dispose in any particular manner. "Order my steps in thy word." Ps. 119:133

- Noah Webster's 1828 Dictionary

Remember to mark your calendar for April 6, our church's 25th Anniversary. Pray for a Big Day. More details coming next Sunday.

Note to all workers in children's ministries

Please try to refrain from giving the children sugar-loaded treats and drink. This is not good for their health or behavior.

Natural juices and water are fine for their thirst. Treats could include graham crackers, pretzels, cheese crackers, etc.

Thanks for the help.

Now read the following poem and stir up your vision for your kids:

“A Diamond in the Rough”

A diamond in the rough
Is a diamond sure enough;
Before it's ever polished
It is made of diamond stuff.

But then someone must find it
Or it never will be found,
And, too, someone must grind it
Or it never will be ground.

But when it's found and when it's ground
And when it's burnished bright,
That diamond is everlastingly
A-flashing out its light.

Oh, workers in children's ministries
Don't say you've done enough.
That worst kid in your ministry
May be a diamond in the rough.

Perhaps you think he's grinding you.
And possibly you're right:
But it may be you need grinding
To burnish you up bright.
