September Events

23, Sunday - Round-Up Sunday with Evangelist Larry Brown. The Lord used Brother Brown to build a large church of 500-600 people in a little town called Washington, Iowa. He will be an inspiration to our small town church. Chicken BBQ at the American Legion Hall after the morning service.

29, Saturday - Justin & Kayleigh's Wedding, 10am

Special Baptism service on Sunday, September 23 after the 11am service. See Pastor Kohl today if you need to be baptized.

Pastor Seth, Marlena Beebe, Rebekah Kohl, Jody Herdzik and Shirley Hartman in Togo, Africa! Please continue to pray for them. They return on Wednesday.

Christ's Death - Prophesied and Fulfilled

A mathematical improbability:

Peter Stone in Science Speaks cited just 11 Bible prophecies and calculated their probability of fulfillment at  $8 \times 10$  to the 63rd degree. That is 10 with 63 zeroes following it!

But that is just 11 prophecies from the Bible. There are over 10,000 other predictions in Scriptures which are already, or soon to be, fulfilled.

"When principles that run against your deepest convictions begins to win the day, then battle is your calling, and peace has become sin."

Abraham Kuyper, Prime Minister of the Netherlands 1091-1905

The Scars Remain

During the early childhood I had a fiery temper which often caused me to say or do unkind things.

One day, after an argument had sent one of my playmates home in tears, my father told me that for each thoughtless, mean thing I did he would drive a nail into our gatepost. Each time I did a kindness or a good deed, one nail would be withdrawn.

Months passed. Each time I entered our gate, I was reminded of the reasons for those ever increasing nails, until finally, getting them out became a challenge.

At last the wished-for day arrived - only one more nail! As my father withdrew it I danced around proudly exclaiming, "See, Daddy, the nails are all gone."

Father gazed intently at the post as he thoughtfully replied, "Yes, the nails are gone - but the scars remain."

A Thot for Parents

"We got rid of the television 31 years ago when our oldest was four. It was a time waster, and the four-year-old was demanding to watch a favorite show of his when it was supper time. We did not want the TV to run our family schedule. Along with home schooling, that has been the best decision we have made for our family. Our family felt closer together; the children had time to develop hobbies and did not have the interest in worldly music, Hollywood, clothing, etc. It definitely led to the better opportunity for them to develop spiritually without those distractions. Our kids did a lot of reading, playing games together and developing their hobbies like piano playing and 4-H activities.

Teacher Tips

A Verse to Live By:

"If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen." 1 Peter 4:11

Gentlemen

by Dr. George Alquist, Jr

A gentleman does not make noises with his straw.

A gentleman does not blow his nose at the table.
