Agape - A New Love

The Greek word agape (love) seems to have been virtually a Christian invention - a new word for a new thing (apart from about twenty occurrences in the Greek version of the Old Testament, it is almost non-existent before the New Testament). Agape draws its meaning directly from the revelation of God in Christ. It is not a form of natural affection, however, intense, but a supernatural fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22). It is a matter of will rather than feeling (for Christians must love even those they dislike (Matthew 5:44-48). It is the basic element in Christ-likeness.

Doubt sees the obstacles,	Faith sees the way!
Doubt sees the darkest night,	Faith sees the day!
Doubt dreads to take a step	Faith soars on high!
Doubt questions, "Who believes?"	Faith answers, "I!"

As someone put it: "Faith sees the invisible, believes the Incredible, and receives the impossible."

Quotes from Pastor Jeff Fugate at Tuesday's Tri-State:

- "Professionals built the Titanic, and amateur built the Ark."
- "Compel the adults, suffer the children."
- "It's not time to give in, it's time to go out."

Other Quotes:

"When they train royalty, they are trained not to fit in."
(Romans 12:2; 1 Peter 2:9)

Unknown

"The World is run by tired people."

"If you've got burdens, that's good, that means you're doing something."

- Pastor Doug Fisher
