CARE PACKAGE FOR THE BARANS: Chris & Elizabeth have requested hymnals. They cost $12 a piece. If you would like to donate money, designate it on your offering envelope.

LOVE'S SECOND MILE

Stern Duty said, "Go walk a mile
And help thy brother bear his load."
I walked reluctant, but meanwhile,
My heart grew soft with help bestowed.

Then Love said, "Go another mile."
I went, and Duty spake no more,
But Love arose and with a smile
Took all the burden that I bore.

'Tis ever thus when Duty calls;
If we spring to obey,
Love comes and whatso'er befalls,
We're glad to help another day.

The second mile we walk with joy;
Heaven's peace goes with us on the road,
So let us all our powers employ
To help our brother bear life's load.

ANYBODY FOR CALVARY?

The town in which I live has an elevated railway. One of the stations is near a great burying ground, Calvary Cemetery. For many years, because in that part of the town there were many more dead than living folk, the trains did not stop at the cemetery except on request. Just after leaving the nearest station, the guard would open the door and say, "Next station is Calvary. Train stops on signal only. Anybody for Calvary?"

It is a parable of life's train. At all the other station every train stops. At Market Street, at School Street, at University Avenue, at Main Street, at Vanity Fair, at Broadway, at Church Street, at Home Avenue. No special notice is needed, but to get off at Calvary - that means a choice and an expressed desire.
