A minister had a horse that he had raised from a colt but decided to sell him. In explaining how to handle the horse to the owner, the pastor informed him that the horse did not respond to the usual, "Giddap," and "Whoa," for starting and stopping.

Instead, he had trained him to go when he said, "Hallelujah" and to stop when he said, "Amen,"

The new owner started him and came to the edge of a cliff. He finally remembered to say, "amen," and the horse stopped just in time.

In his relief, he cried, "Hallelujah!"

CHANGE WEIGH OFF - THIS WEDNESDAY!
THANKSGIVING EVE, 7PM

Every cent will go to help buy a van and other needs for Chris & Elizabeth Baran, our missionaries in Cebu, Philippines.

As you know, their area has been hit by a earthquake and a typhoon in the last few months.

Thanksgiving Dinner is at 6pm.

FIRST THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

In 1789, George Washington issued this Thanksgiving Proclamation:

"Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly implore His protection, aid and favors...

"Now, therefore, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of November next, to be devoted by the people of these states to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the Beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be;

"That we may then all unite in rendering unto him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country, and for all the great and various favors which He has been pleased to conger upon us."

KISSING WIFE FOR EVERY MEAL

"My husband, Paul, and I have been married 49 years, and he's thanked me with a kiss for every meal I've made," reports Sally Poskevich of Sioux City, Iowa. "It doesn't matter if it's toast for breakfast or steak for dinner - he always remembers."

"When he worked, he thanked me for the lunch I packed even before he knew what was in it.

"I've made more than a few disastrous meals over those years. For those he gave me an extra kiss - 'for the effort', he said.

"Our granddaughter calculated that Paul has thanked me 53,655 times!"

There is a new
MEN'S PRAYER MEETING
