OCTOBER IS STEWARDSHIP MONTH

An exciting time each year when we re-evaluate the stewardship of our time, talents, and treasures.

The highlight of the month will be the Missions Conference, Oct. 19-22, with Dr. Rene Freret from Gulfport, Mississippi. Also hear missionaries from Lithuania, Mexico, Hungary, and Panama.

Monday, October 20, is the International Dinner at 6pm. Tables will be arrayed in the décor of different nations, and many ethnic dishes will be prepared. Plan now to be here!

AN INWARD PAIN

Once there was a Christian
He had a pious look
His consecration was complete
Except his pocketbook.

He'd put a nickel in the plate,
And then, with might and main,
He'd sing: "When we asunder part
It gives us inward pain."

LEFTOVERS

Leftovers are such humble things,
We would not serve them to a guest
And yet we serve them to our Lord
Who deserves the very best.

We give to Him leftover time,
Stray minutes here and there,
Leftover cash we give to him,
Such few coins we can spare.

We give our youth unto the world,
To hatred, lust and strife;
Then in declining years we give
To Him the remnant of our life.

MEANING OF

STEWARDSHIP

A man doesn't decide to become a steward after he has been saved, nor after he begins to make money. He is a steward - good or bad - when he becomes a Christian. Stewardship in the Christian life demands that a man take good care of his financial affairs because he has been commissioned by Christ to manage those affairs for the Lord.

ON STORMS

As William Dean Howells and Mark Twain were coming out of church one morning, it commenced to rain heavily.

"Do you think it will stop?" Asked Howells. "It always has," answered Twain.
