SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Signer #34: George Read (1733-1798)

Delaware. Age at signing: 42

Married: Gertrude (5 children)

Occupation: Lawyer

Quotes & Notes:

George Read and Thomas McKean (last week) were responsible for writing Delaware's constitution.

Wanting to maintain integrity in the office, they placed in it these words:

"Every person who shall be chosen a member of either house, or appointed to any office or place of trust . . . Shall . . . Make and subscribe the following declaration, to wit: 'I do profess faith in God the Father and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, and in the Holy Ghost, one God, blessed forever more, and I do acknowledge the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be given by divine inspiration.'"

Hallelujah - Amen!

Two strangers once found themselves on the same ship. They began to watch one another closely, both conscious of an instinctive bond. But they came from different lands, and neither understood a word of the other's language.

They sat not far from one another on the ship's deck. One of them noticed that the other had a Bible in his hand. He could remain silent no longer.

"Hallelujah!" he said, pointing to the Bible.

"Amen," the other smiled, and they shook hands.

Internal Life

Dr. Walter Wilson was visiting in a home and the members of the family were asked to quote Bible verses.

One little girl quoted John 3:16 as follows: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish but have INTERNAL life."

Needless to say, he did not correct her, for it is internal life, as well as everlasting life.
