Men's Work Days Ahead

Sometime this year we will be building a balcony and renovating the entire auditorium of the Evans Chapel, (dry wall, ceiling, lighting, carpet, chairs, electrical, etc.)

We are going to be calling on the men of the church and chapel to use their abilities to get this huge job done. Currently we are working with the Architect and Engineer on the plans. Once we acquire the permits we will be scheduling many work days. We hope you can help. We'll keep you posted.

Carpet Cleaning Week at FBBC will be April 4-9. We want to clean all the carpets in preparation for the big meetings April 11-12 with Pastor Doug Fisher and the Preachers Fellowship. We will also be having the Tile floors downstairs professionally stripped and waxed. We hope to install stair treads on many of the stairs replacing the worn out carpets in the building. Lunch and Dinner will be provided on Tuesday April 12 - Details coming Pastor Seth Garland, John Uptegrove, and Don McCaslin are in Chile and will return Feb. 20. Please keep them in your prayers daily. May God use them to be a blessing to the Robinson family.

Only Relatives Marry?

The Douglas County News of Castle Rock, Colorado, carried the story of a proposal by an 8-year-old, who when he asked his little girlfriend to marry him was turned down on the grounds that in her family only relatives married. When he demanded an explanation she said, "If you and me were relatives we could get married, but we are not. In my family my daddy married my mother. My grandfather married my grandmother, and my uncles are all married to my aunts.. So you see, we can't get married, cause we're not relatives."

"Awful" Husband

It seems that Rusty misunderstood what the preacher said at his uncle's wedding, because later he was overheard reenacting it in play, "Rosemary, do you take this man for your awful wedded husband?"
