From a message preached at Chapel
6/26/16 by Pastor Kohl

The great Abraham Lincoln had ten guidelines by which he lived and governed that had a profound effect on life. So much so, that he adopted them for his own. He followed these guidelines until the day he died:

1. You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift.
2. You cannot help small men by tearing down big men.
3. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.
4. You cannot lift the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer.
5. You cannot help the poor man by destroying the rich.
6. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than your income.
7. You cannot further the brotherhood of men by inciting class hatred.
8. You cannot establish security on borrowed money.
9. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence.
10. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves.

Difficult statement to believe by one of the most prominent evolutionists ever:

"Random things occur in evolution. We wouldn't be here if the impact of a large extraterrestrial body hadn't removed the dinosaurs. That wasn't adaptation or natural selection. That was just a bad break. Mammals happened to survive because they were tiny little creatures that could hide, because they never had any evolutionary success competing with dinosaurs. And so it's lucky that we're even here."
-Stephen Jay Gould
