To know the will of God is the greatest knowledge, to find the will of God is the greatest discovery, and to do the will of God is the greatest achievement.
—George W. Truett

Wait on the Lord

The late Dr. J. H. Jowett said that he was once in a most pitiful perplexity, and consulted Dr. Berry, of Wolverhampton.

"What would you do if you were in my place?" he entreated.

"Don't know, Jowett, I am not there, and you are not there yet.

When do you have to act?"

"On Friday," Dr. Jowett replied.

"Then," answered Berry, "you will find your way perfectly clear on Friday. The Lord will not fail you." And surely enough, on Friday all was plain.

Give God time, and even when the knife flashes in the air the ram will be seen caught in the thicket. Give God time, and even when Pharaoh's host is on Israel's heels, a path through the waters will be suddenly open. Give God time, and when the bed of the brook is dry, Elijah shall hear the guiding voice.
— F. W. Boreham

I am content with whatever entertainment I meet with. That must be the spirit with all who take journeys with me. If a dinner ill dressed, a hard bed, a poor room, a shower of rain, or a dirty road will put them out of humor, it lays a burden upon me greater than all the rest put together. By the grace of God I never fret; I repine at nothing; I am discontented with nothing. And to have persons at my ear fretting and murmuring at everything is like tearing the flesh off my bones.
- John Wesley (1703-1791)

The Difference!

There is a vast difference between a person with a vision and a visionary person. The person with a vision talks little but does much. The person who is visionary talks much but does nothing.
