George Muller and Knowing God's Will

1. Get your own will out of the way.

"I seek at the beginning to get my heart in such a state that it has no will of its own in regard to a given matter. Nine-tenths of the trouble with people generally is just here. Nine-tenths of the difficulties are overcome when our hearts are ready to do the Lord's will, whatever it may be. When one is truly in this state, it is usually but a little way to the knowledge of what His will is."
Psalm 40:8; Luke 22:42; 1 John 5:14

2. Feelings are the sure path to delusions. Avoid walking that path.

"Having done this, I do not leave the result to feeling or simple impression. If so, I make myself liable to great delusions."
Genesis 27:22; Obadiah 1:3; Isaiah 55:8; Proverbs 16:3

3. Seek the will of the Spirit in connection with the Word.

"I seek the will of the Spirit of God through, or in connection with, the Word of God. The Spirit and the Word must be combined. If I look to the Spirit alone without the Word, I lay myself open to great delusions also. If the Holy Spirit guides us at all, He will do it according to the Scriptures and never contrary to them."
Ephesians 6:17; John 4:23-24; Psalm 119:105

4. Consider providential circumstances

[a call for sanctified common sense].
 "Next I take into account providential circumstances. These often plainly indicate God's will in connection with His Word and Spirit."
Hebrews 5:14; 1 Thessalonians 5:21

5. Get on your knees in the throne room.

"I ask God in prayer to reveal His will to me aright."
Psalm 25:4; Luke 11:9; Deuteronomy 29:29

6. Make a deliberate judgment, and then keep testing it with prayer.

"This calmness of mind, this having no will of my own in the matter, this only wishing to please my Heavenly Father in it, this only seeking His and not my honor in it, this state of heart, I say is the fullest assurance to me that my heart is not under a fleshly excitement, and that, if helped thus to go on, I shall know the will of God to the full."
Mark 10:45; Mark 14:36; John 12:27
