Philippians 2:14-15

¹⁴ Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
¹⁵ That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

Check the boxes for each day that you say this week's memory verses:

A Mother's Prayer

French naval officer and novelist Pierre Loti was once given a Bible by his mother, who wrote this inscription on the flyleaf:

"May these words of our Saviour strike you most specially, my son, and make a deep impression. Let this book never be closed. Each day meditate on some passage for your strength.

"If I could have the certainty that you would be a true disciple of Christ, how my pain in being separated from you would lose its bitterness."

Little Boy's Big Sermon

Years ago, a young boy, small for his age, worked as an errand boy for four men in an office building. One day the men were teasing him about his size, telling him all he couldn't do.

The little fellow confidently replied, "Well, as small as I am, I can do something none of you can do! I can talk without swearing!"

Both Are Needed

It was once stated that moral training is received at the knee of a devout mother, and across the knee of a determined father. Both knees are needed. (See Proverbs 13:24.)

Unknown Prayers

A four-year-old was spending a night away from home. At bedtime, she knelt at the bedside to say her prayers, expecting the usual prompting. Finding Mrs. B unable to help her, the little girl prayed,

"Please, God, 'scuse me. I can't remember my prayers, and I'm staying with a lady who don't know any."
